RADM (NS) Teo's Visit to 128 Squadron

03 Mar 1998

RADM (NS) Teo at the opening of a UAV Training Simulator set-up

This morning, 3 Mar 98, the Minister for Education and Second Minister for Defence, Rear-Admiral (RADM) (NS) Teo Chee Hean, announced the inauguration of the newly acquired Searcher Unmanned Aerial Vehicle (UAV) system by the Singapore Armed Forces (SAF) during a visit to 128 Squadron at Murai Camp. The Squadron is a unit of the Republic of Singapore Air Force's Tactical Air Support Command (TASC). RADM (NS) Teo also officiated the opening of a UAV Training Simulator set-up.

On arrival, RADM (NS) Teo was met by the Chief of Air Force, Major-General Goh Yong Siang and Commander of Tactical Air Support Command, Colonel Toh Su Po. He was then briefed on the organisation and structure of 128 Squadron.

After the briefing, RADM (NS) Teo viewed a demonstration of the UAV Training Simulator and had some hands-on experience with the piloting of the UAV using the Training Simulator.

RADM (NS) Teo observed a flight demonstration and viewed a static display of the new UAV during the visit. He also met with the squadron's officers and specialists.
