AND REGISTRATION OF OVERSEAS ELECTORS

The revised Registers of Electors for all 23 Constituencies (14 Group Representation Constituencies and 9 Single Member Constituencies) have been completed and will be exhibited for public inspection from 3 March 2009 to 16 March 2009 at the Elections Department, the Inspection Centres for the respective Constituencies and at nine Overseas Registration Centres. During this period, online checking of the Registers of Electors may also be made via the Elections Department's eServices provided at its website (www.elections.gov.sg).

2 Along with the exhibition of the revised Registers of Electors, registration of overseas electors will also commence on 3 March 2009. Application for registration as overseas elector may be made online via the Elections Department's eServices, or in person at the Elections Department or any of the nine Overseas Registration Centres.

3 The Elections Department is located at 11 Prinsep Link, Singapore 187949. The addresses of the Inspection Centres and Overseas Registration Centres are listed in Annexes A and B.

Exhibition of Registers of Electors (from 3 March 2009 to 16 March 2009)

6 The exhibition of the Registers of Electors will allow electors to: -

- (a) check to ensure that their names are listed under the correct address in the relevant Register of Electors;
- (b) submit claims for the inclusion of their names in the relevant Register of Electors, if their names have been excluded therefrom; and
- (c) submit objections against names of persons appearing in the Register of Electors of the same Constituency of which the objector is an elector.

7 All Singapore Citizens aged 21 and above as on 1 February 2009, who are ordinarily resident in Singapore, will have their names entered in the Registers of Electors. However, they are advised to check that their addresses are listed correctly in the relevant Register of Electors either online via the Elections Department's eServices or in person at the Elections Department, at any of the Inspection Centres or Overseas Registration Centres. They should bring along their identity cards or passports when they visit the Elections Department, the Inspection Centres or Overseas Registration Centres.

8 Persons whose names were expunged from the Registers of Electors owing to their failure to vote at a previous election may apply to have their names restored to the Registers of Electors. They should produce documentary evidence to justify their failure to vote at the election concerned as far as possible.

Registration of Overseas Electors (from 3 March 2009 onwards)

9 Overseas Singaporeans whose names are in the Registers of Electors and who have resided in Singapore for an aggregate of 30 days during the period of three years immediately preceding 1 February 2009 may apply to be registered as an overseas elector to vote at any of the nine Overseas Polling Stations listed in Annex C, from 3 March 2009 onwards. Application may be made at any time up to when the writ for an election is issued, and after the election.

10 Application may be made online via the Elections Department's eServices provided at its website (www.elections.gov.sg) using their NRIC number and SingPass. (They are able to complete their application form and submit it online only if they login to the Elections Department's eServices using their SingPass. If they do not have a SingPass, they may apply for it at the SingPass website (www.singpass.gov.sg)).

11 Alternatively, forms for "Application to be Overseas Elector" are available at the Elections Department and the Overseas Registration Centres. Completed forms must be submitted either by registered post or in person to the Elections Department or any of the Overseas Registration Centres.
