ESTABLISHMENT OF DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH SOLOMON ISLANDS

Convinced that the establishment of diplomatic relations between Solomon Islands and the Republic of Singapore will contribute to a better understanding and cooperation amongst their respective peoples, the Governments of Solomon Islands and the Republic of Singapore have agreed to establish diplomatic relations as from 21 April 1987.

The two Governments further agree that the non-resident High Commissioner of Solomon Islands to Singapore will be accredited out of Honiara.
