Change of Command for the Chief of Air Force

30 Mar 2001

Major-General (MAJ-GEN) Raymund Ng handed over the Air Force Command Symbol to Brigadier-General (BG) Lim Kim Choon. BG Lim Kim Choon takes over as Chief of Air Force with effect from 1 Apr 2001. The Change of Command Parade for the Chief of Air Force was held this afternoon at the Republic of Singapore Air Force's Tengah Air Base (TAB).

MAJ-GEN Ng reviewed a parade with a Guard-of-Honour formed by TAB, and the Field Defence Squadrons of Paya Lebar Air Base (PLAB), Sembawang Air Base (SBAB), Changi Air Base (CAB) and TAB. The Parade included six marching contingents from the RSAF's Air Defence Systems Division (ADSD), SBAB, PLAB, Tactical Air Support Command (TASC), Air Force School, and a combined contingent from CAB, Air Force Armament Base and Air Force Supply Base. MAJ-GEN also reviewed a military mobile column displaying equipment from the ADSD, and a static display showcasing an array of aircraft from the RSAF.

The Change of Command is part of the SAF's policy on leadership renewal, and to release talented SAF officers to serve in the public and private sectors. MAJ-GEN Raymund Ng Teck Heng will join Singapore Airlines Limited on 1 Jul 01.
