The Commander-in-Chief of the Royal Thai Air Force (RTAF), Air Chief Marshal (ACM) Kongsak Vantana, called on Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Defence, Dr Tony Tan, at the Ministry of Defence this morning.

ACM Kongsak is in Singapore on an introductory visit from 16 to 18 December 2002 at the invitation of the Chief of Air Force, Republic of Singapore Air Force (RSAF), Major-General Lim Kim Choon. This visit underscores the excellent defence relations between Singapore and Thailand. The RSAF and RTAF interact regularly through a wide range of activities, including exercises, visits, professional exchanges and courses. These interactions strengthen the rapport and understanding among the officers and men of the two air forces.

During his visit, ACM Kongsak also co-officiated at the opening ceremony of Exercise Cope Tiger, an annual trilateral exercise involving the RSAF, RTAF, and the United States Air Force.
