EXHIBITION AT NATIONAL MUSEUM

Photographs of birds by late Dato Loke

The family of the late Dato Loke Wan Tho presents to the National Museum in Singapore a collection of 60 photographs of birds taken by the late Dato Loke in Singapore, Malaysia, India, New Guinea and Finland. These photographs have been shown in international salons and many of them have won photographic awards.

An exhibition of these photographs, 21 of which illustrate the techniques of photography in the field, together with the awards the late Dato Loke had acquired, will be open to members of the public from 21st June, 1966 till the end of November, 1966.

The aim of the exhibition is to stimulate the interest of the young people in the Republic of Singapore in ^{the} study of ornithology and bird photography.

JUNE 20, 1966.
