

Curriculum Vitae

(March 30, 1970)

Personal

Dr. Augustine Hui-Heng Tan

Lecturer, Dept. of Economics, University of Singapore.

Date of Birth: December 13, 1940.

Place of Birth: Singapore - Singapore citizen.

Academic

1. Primary and Secondary:

Montfort School (up to Senior Cambridge);
St. Joseph's Institution (H.S.C.).

2. Advanced:

B.A. (Econ., First Class Honours), University
of Singapore, 1962;
M.A. (Econ.) University of Singapore, 1966;
M.A. (Econ.) Stanford University (USA), 1965;
Ph.D. (Econ.) Stanford University (USA), 1968.

Public Service

1. Consultant, ECAFE's ASEAN Expert Advisory Group.
2. Consultant, Government of Thailand on study of "The Southeast Asian Economy In The 1970's" (currently being studied by the Asian Development Bank).
3. Deputy Leader of Singapore Delegation to Unesco's CASTASIA Conference, New Delhi, August 1968.
4. Joint Editor, The Malayan Economic Review, since April, 1969.
5. Vice-President, Economic Society of Singapore.
6. Consultant, International Bank For Reconstruction And Development - commissioned to produce a monograph on "Development Strategy of Singapore In The Sixties," due to be completed in late 1970.

Awards

- (i) Singapore Government Bursary, 1959-62.
- (ii) University of Singapore Book Prize for First Class Honours, 1962.
- (iii) Fellowship, Agricultural Development Council, Inc. (New York)
 - (a) Grant for M.A., 1962-63;
 - (b) Grant for Ph.D., 1963-68.

Publications

Papers in Malayan Economic Review; Economic Record (Aust.);
The American Economic Review (American Economic Association)
and The Review of Economic Studies (Cambridge University).